Germans Suffer Severely in Flanders Battle When Battlefield Is Flooded—Turks
Stop Russian Advance

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 16.—Fast and furious fighting both in the eastern and the western arenas of the war is expected by English military observers to make this coming week memorable even in war each epoch of which has witnessed war, each week of which has witnessed carnage equal to that of the great battles of history. And at the same time hints from the front encourage them to expect that the week also will see the German tide through Flanders toward the coast towns of Dunkirk and Calais begin to ebb.

French official announcements of yesterday, is doubtless responsible for this optimism. While the vigor of the Tonic offensive may have slackened, there is at the present moment little therefore is expected before the next phase of the operations opens.

FLANDERS BATTLE.

The battle in Flanders was continuing today with the same ferocity which has consistently marked this crucial struggle since it began more than a month ago. From French sources came reports of minor advantages in the fighting but the great issue there, as on the eastern frontier of Germany, still hung in the balance.

Of greater importance to Great Britain than any of the day's passing events was the question of the attitude in the world war to be taken by the million of Moslems in her colonial possessions.

Reports emanating from Germany were at least, were siding with the sultan of Turkey, to whom they owe spiritual allegiance, as against Great Britain.

The German attack in the extreme west is shifting slowly southward in Belgium, toward the French border. The country to the west of Dixmude has been transformed by the tapping of canals and the heavy rains into a vast swamp, in which heavy fighting is almost impossible. South of Dixmude the French war office said today, renewed efforts to cross the Yser canal were beaten back, with the destruction of a German regiment.

claim the recapture of positions taken recently by the enemy. Elsewhere along the battle line the fighting has once more relaxed, being limited chiefly to artillery engagements.

The British warships mentioned by Berlin as having been disabled by German artillery fire from the shore are all small vessels. They are the torpedo boat destroyer Falcon, the light cruiser Brilliant and the sloop-of-war Rinaldo.

No details of the extent of the damage inflicted are given by Berlin, which has the report from Geneva.

FLOOD ROUTS GERMANS.

In London, it is rumored that a large force of Germans around Duxford—been cut off by the floods. The inundated country now extends south of Dixmude to within three miles of Bixchoote, about half way to the French border. In other sections snow has fallen and the harvesting men on the firing line, as described by persons returning from the front, are frightful. At points the Germans are said to have been literally swept out of their trenches by the floods. Guns and

The Russians apparently are concentrating their efforts on the capture of Cracow and Przemyśl, in an effort to crush completely the Austrian army.

E. O. WALKER, WAYCROSS, MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING

WAYCROSS, Ga., Nov. 16.—Believing that E. O. Walker was murdered and his body thrown into the Satilla river, near Waycross, searchers today are seeking to find a trace of him along the river. Officers and friends of the missing man spent all Sunday scouring the woods for several miles around the city without result.
Mrs. Walker is in a serious condition, because of the disappearance of her husband, while the father of the man, a Confederate veteran, is on the verge of a collapse. He fears his son won't be found alive and is emphatic in declaring the young man would not leave home on his own accord.

ATLANTA'S FEDERAL RESERVE BANK NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Giles L. Wilson, of Jacksonville, Named Deputy Governor and W. H. Toole, of Windsor, Secretary of Board

The federal reserve bank of Atlanta opened its doors for regular business at 9 o'clock Monday morning in its quarters in the Hurt building. A telegram from Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo authorized the opening.

The directors of the bank met at 9 o'clock and proceeded with the formal appointment of additional officials and other business.

At the morning session Giles L. Wilson, of Jacksonville, was elected deputy governor and W. H. Toole, of Windsor, secretary of the board. Only the cashier remained to be elected.

The bank began operations with $1,000,000 in gold, representing the first installment of the reduction of the reserves of the member banks in all of the six states in the sixth district.

The Third National bank of Atlanta was the first bank of the system to make its reserve. Other reserve deposits were received all during the morning.

No paper was rediscounted Monday morning, although the bank was ready for this work.

At 2 o'clock the directors were guests of the Atlanta Clearing House association at a luncheon at the Capital City Club, and on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock they will be guests of the Atlanta Credit Men's association at the chamber of commerce cafe.

J. B. Pike, of New Orleans, was tendered the position of cashier by the directors. His acceptance has not yet been received.

The Atlanta banks alone released $2,200,000 of reserves, which, through the new system, will be used in rediscounting commercial, industrial and agricultural paper.

The capital of $200,000 in gold and gold certificates was transferred Monday from the vault of the Third National Bank to the vault of the federal reserve bank in the Hurt building.

M. B. Wellborn, chairman of the board of directors of the bank, and the government's representative here, and Joseph A. McCord, the bank's governor, received the following telegram of congratulation Monday morning from Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo:

"Please accept my cordial congratulations upon the opening of the federal reserve bank of your district and my sincere commendation upon the effective work you have done in preparing the bank for business in the short time allowed for the opening. I am sure that the federal reserve banks will serve a great and beneficial purpose in the future of our country, and I am sure that this department and the federal reserve board may count upon your loyal cooperation in the important work and duties which have been confided to you. My hearty good wishes for your success."

The following telegram from Comptroller of the Currency John Skelton Williams was received by Chairman Wellborn:

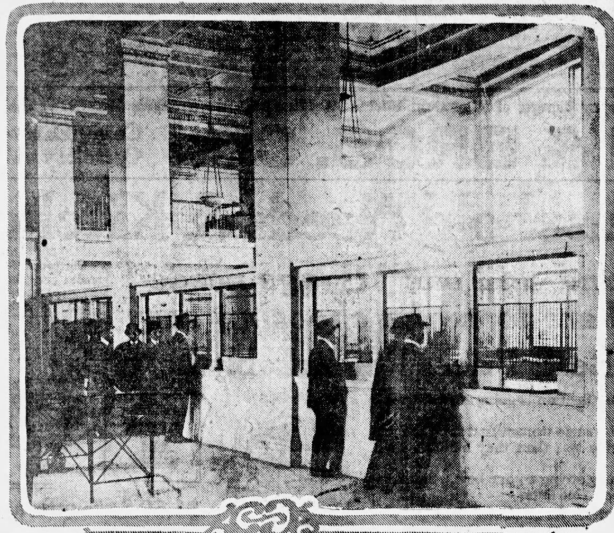

"Washington, D. C., Nov. 14—Mr. B. Wellborn, Chairman Board of Directors, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Atlanta, Ga.: This is to notify you that the certificate or charter authorizing the federal reserve bank of Atlanta to commence business in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of the federal reserve act has been officially signed and expressed to you. As it is impossible to have these certificates in the possession of all federal reserve banks by the morning of November 16, this telegram will be your authority, pending the receipt of the certificate referred to, for the federal reserve bank of Atlanta to commence business on the morning of November 16, 1914."

McAdoo Signs Formal Order.
Putting Banks in Operation
(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Secretary McAdoo, early today signed the formal order announcing that the twelve federal reserve banks were established and ready for business. It was the final step required to set in motion the nation's new currency system and found the regional banks ready for operation.

Every step the reserve board thought necessary for the first great change in the country's mode of banking in the last fifty years had been taken. While directors of the several banks had only three weeks in which to perfect their organizations they had promptly responded to Secretary McAdoo's suggestion that they take up the work to-day.

DR. ANNA SHAW RE-ELECTED BY NAT'L SUFFRAGISTS

Entire Administration Ticket Is Elected at Convention at Nashville

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 15.—The entire administration ticket of the National American Woman Suffrage association, headed by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, of New York, for president, was elected at the annual convention of the association here today.

This victory in the election of officers means that the administration will have full control in the national board which directs the work and decides all new questions of policy that may arise during the year. In the three contests for officers the administration candidates won by decisive majorities over the anti-administration candidates on what was destined as the "representative ticket."

In addition to Dr. Shaw the following officers were elected:

First vice president, Mrs. Stanley McCormick, New York; second vice president, Mrs. Desha Breckenridge, Kentucky; third vice president, Miss Katherine B. Davis, New York; recording secretary, Mrs. Susan W. Fitzgerald, Massachusetts; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Orten H. Clark, Michigan; treasurer, Mrs. Henry H. Rogers, Connecticut; first auditor, Mrs. Helen Guthrie Miller, Missouri; second auditor, Mrs. Medill McCormick, Illinois.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw's re-election as president was a foregone conclusion, as there was no candidate in opposition. The contests for other officers of the national board were between Miss Jean Gordon and Mrs. Katherine D. McCormick for first vice president; Mrs. Anna Martin and Mrs. Susan W. Fitzgerald for recording secretary; and Miss Zona Gale and Mrs. Medill McCormick for second auditor.

DANDRUFF SURELY DESTROYS THE HAIR
Makes it Dull, Brittle, Lifeless, and Causes it to Fall Out.

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arsenic, apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You need get liquid arsenic at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—(Adv.)

ALLIES PLAN BLOW WHICH WILL CRUSH KAISER THIS WEEK

Austrian garrison at Pilsenitz, according to an official Austrian statement, made a successful sortie from the fortified fortress. From the same source it is reported that the Germans are massing their forces at strategic points in the eastern provinces of Posen and Silesia, preparing for the expected Russian advance.

TURKS HALT RUSSIANS. Personal acknowledgments that the severe attacks of the Turks in the Caucasian regions near the eastern shores of the Black sea have halted the Russian movement. The advance guards of the Russians have been compelled to retreat, the Turks having secured large reinforcements. An official Turkish statement today asserts that the Russians have suffered heavy losses.

The Austrian operations against Serbia, according to official advices from Vienna, are proceeding successfully. The Serbians rallied before the Austrian advance in northwestern Serbia, but have been said to have been compelled again to fall back before the invaders.

Intensions problem of dealing with the Germans was brought up by the German statement that the kielers of Egypt had been since the beginning of the war to assume command of the Turkish forces against the British. Another report of discussion in British papers coming from the same source, was to the effect that the leader of the kielers at Aden, a British possession, was calling on his people to use arms against their rulers.

The official statement of the pope was issued today. It is an appeal for peace, and attributes the war to lack of mutual love among men, contempt for authority, injustice on the part of one class of men against another, and the domination of material wealth in the last object of human activity.

Germans Claim Capture of 23,000 Russians Recently

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—(By Wireless to London.)—An official announcement came out in Berlin this afternoon saying that the German attacks in Flanders are progressing slowly but in the Argentine the Germans have obtained further important successes.

Continuing it sets forth that German troops have repulsed the enemy near Rappolow, and also drove them back in Lüne. Five hundred prisoners were captured on the Vistula river.

German forces have been successful in Westphalia, where several Russian army units were driven back. In this fighting, the Germans, according to recent reports, made 2,000 prisoners and captured much artillery.

The text of the communication follows:

In the western areas of the war the allies showed only moderate activity yesterday on account of the storm. In Flanders our attacks are progressing slowly, but in the forest of Argonne we have obtained further important successes.

The fighting went on steadily. Yesterday our troops operating in East Prussia repulsed the enemy in the region south of Stallpönen. Troops from West Prussia successfully resisted the advance of Russian forces at Gollau, and after a successful battle in Lüne, drove them back in the direction of Plock.

Strong Russian forces are advancing along the right bank of the Vistula river. In this fighting we made 500 prisoners and captured ten machine guns yesterday.

A decision has been arrived at in the Baltic which has been going on for the last few days in continuation of our successes at Wolowek, in Russian Pomerania, and on the Vistula, thirty miles north-

Boy Buries Himself Under Cotton Seed; Is Smothered to Death

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) EASTMAN, Ga., Nov. 16.—(Sammy Lee Wilcox, son of Clark Wilcox, a prosperous farmer living twelve miles from Eastman, was smothered to death Sunday afternoon while playing in some seed cotton. The little fellow buried himself in the cotton and couldn't get out. He was found dead later. He was six years old.

GRAND JURY CONSIDERS BIGAMY INDICTMENT

The Fulton county grand jury Monday began consideration of a bill of indictment drawn on the testimony of Miss Eva Bulce, of 21 West Glenn street, charging E. M. Garrett with bigamy. Miss Bulce charges she married Garrett October 18, 1914, but that a few days later, while they were living at 31 Robbins street, a postal card was brought to the house directed to Garrett, from an attorney acting for Garrett's first wife in Anniston, who was suing him for divorce.

Mrs. Annie Bulce, her mother, got hold of the postal card before Garrett did, it was stated, called up the police, and had him arrested.

Armies in Flanders Are Deadlocked in Snow

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The armies of the allies and of Germany remain deadlocked in West Flanders today along the battle line, where the snow is now ankle deep, with the prospect of further infantry attacks, and the prospect of further trench warfare, already laborious and exhausting, will daily become a greater ordeal.

In the eastern areas of the war the Germans are making and executing their plans in face of the Russian advance. It is said that great German forces are being concentrated at Thorn, Posen and Breslau, with the idea of keeping the Russians out of important districts in the provinces of Posen and Silesia.

In East Prussia the Russian forward movement seems to continue, and it is reported that German generals are imposing on the captured towns fines in proportion to those levied by the Germans on cities of Belgium. These fines correspond with the population of the towns taken.

The British operation against the Turks has spread the configuration to the southern entrance of the Red sea, where Indian troops assisted by British warships have taken the Turkish fort.

In the Caucasus the Russians and Turks are still at grips, both sides claiming victories.

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION SPLIT ON PLAN OF WORK

Disagreement Comes Over Recommendation to Name Public Welfare Board

The "Industrial Commission," composed of five council members and four citizens, which was appointed some weeks ago by council to investigate conditions in the city, has split over a recommendation to name a "board of public welfare" to supervise all charities in the city. Three citizens and three councilmen attended the meeting of the body Monday morning, and the three citizens, L. C. Hopkins, T. K. Glenn and J. M. Hoxsey, wanted to recommend the creation of such a board of control for charities, while the members of council, C. C. McGee, Chairman, C. Ashley and George H. Boynton, opposed the recommendation.

The councilmen won a partial victory by an agreement that the committee shall meet at a later date to fight out the question of control of charities, while this feature of the report will be eliminated, when it is read to council Monday afternoon.

The report as it will be read Monday urges principally the passing of a big municipal bond issue, which would serve the double purpose of providing needed permanent improvements which could be made in the current revenue, and giving employment to a number of workmen who have lost their positions through the general business retrenchment.

The report also recommends the creation of a municipal employment bureau at which all people out of work, regardless of sex or color, can register, and be placed in touch with the employers of labor in the city and state.

L. C. Hopkins was one of the citizens who fought for some time to have incorporated in the report a recommendation for a board of welfare. He urged that there should be right municipal inspection into all individuals or organizations who ask the people of Atlanta for donations for charitable purposes, and that they should give a strict accounting of the manner in which the money subscribed by the people of the city is expended.

HARRY SAPPHIRE ACCUSED OF LARCENY FROM HOUSE

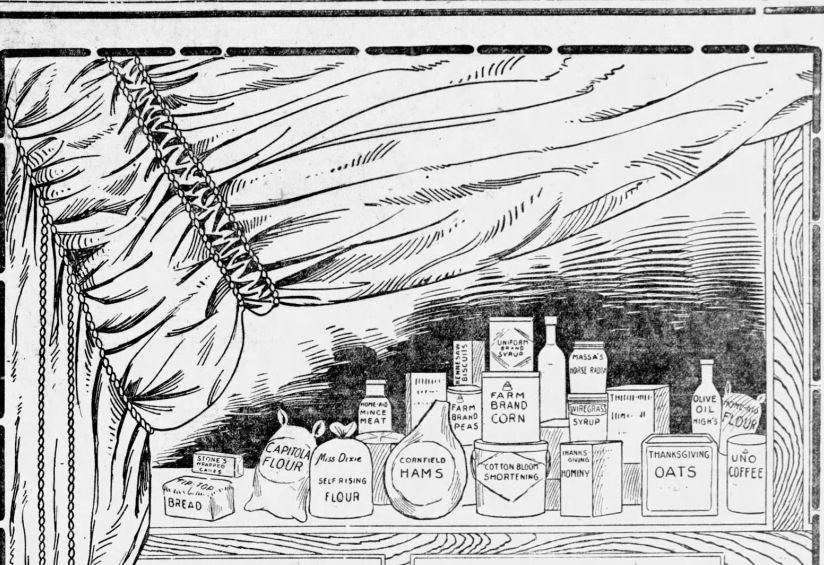

Harry Sapphire, the house detective of the Wincoff hotel who had a fight with Manager J. F. Letton, of that hotel, Saturday night, was arrested Monday morning on a warrant sworn out in the municipal court charging him with larceny from the house.

The warrant was taken out by Detective Waggoner, who was on duty at the time the fight between Manager Letton and Sapphire was witnessed by the police.

The warrant was served on Sapphire in a cell at police station, and he was removed from there and taken to the county jail to await a hearing before Judge Ribley, of the municipal court, Wednesday morning.

In the meantime the trial of Sapphire and Manager Letton before the recorder on the charge of disorderly conduct will be postponed until after the trial of the larceny case.

It is understood the police are after Sapphire on several lines. His room on the second floor of the house, which has been disclosed various articles which had been missing. The police accuse him of trying to damage the reputation of two policemen by obtaining affidavits from a woman of shady reputation.

Lifting the Curtain of "Supposition"

And Letting the Light of Everyday Facts State the Truth as to Why—

Atlanta-Made Pure Foods Are Best

And not only the truth as to why our own home products are best, but also why the people of Atlanta—all the people of Atlanta—should buy "Atlanta-made" goods. The twelve industries whose advertisements, including our own, appear in this diagram, work several hundred employees. In fact, the number employed by the twelve Atlanta industries runs into the thousands, and they are all ATLANTA PEOPLE. The J. M. These people—THESE THOUSANDS OF ATLANTA PEOPLE—are dependent on these twelve industries for their salaries, for their livelihood, and YOU who are reading this advertisement are dependent, to a larger or smaller degree, on the money which these twelve industries pay their employees. Had you ever thought of that? That being true, isn't it your DUTY, as a loyal Atlanta citizen, to buy the foodstuffs manufactured and sold by these twelve Atlanta industries—PROVIDED, of course, they are as good as or better than other foodstuffs that are NOT made in Atlanta? We think it is—what do YOU think about it?

The J. M. High Company's Pure Food Store is this week featuring "Atlanta-made" pure foods; we have them on display, and the exhibition of these goods which you will see here is one that would do credit to any city. ONE of our ambitions is to have this store known as the store where the finest, highest grade clothing is sold.

There's no way to have it known as that kind of a store unless we first make it that kind of a store; and that is what we've done.

There are still a good many men who don't know yet how fine the best ready clothing is; how great the progress has been, in late years, in style designing, in fine tailoring, in the use of the finest fabrics, the richest silk linings; how perfectly the designers can fit the various shapes and dimensions of the human figure.

Nobody, we believe, can offer you more value in the merchandise than we; but we add other things that are worth while to you and to us. Service in the right spirit is worth while; satisfaction guaranteed is worth while; you don't pay anything extra here for them; but you get them.

THEATERS

The Four Marx Brothers, and their unusually large vaudeville company, will be the headline act at the Forester this week, presenting their musical comedy, "Home Again." The musical playlet is crowded with singing and dancing numbers and specialties.

There is no question about the drawing power of John F. Conroy and his Diving Models, who are special extra added features on the bill. His magnificent stage setting is one of the handiwork on the stage and the effects used are simply wonderful.

Ray Raymond and Florence Bain will present "Locked Out," a new comedy act, and Jack George will do a comedy stunt. A feature for the ladies

Hundreds of New Suits and Every One at a Rich, Round Saving

Into New York our Ready-to-Wear chief went a-skirmishing for new suits at the time when most stores are concerned with ridding themselves of the straggling ends of stocks selected months ago.

And now here comes the new things---Saturday's express brought over a hundred new suits, today's even more.

Tomorrow should be the most propitious day of the entire season for the woman who has a suit to buy.

We have done a great piece of work---we got the suits that within the last few weeks have risen to the pinnacle of style---suits with short coats, fur trimmed suits, and we got them at savings--good, substantial savings.

At $19.50 here are fur-trimmed suits, of broadcloth and gabardine---fur on the collars, fur on the skirts. The reason is, they are $25 and $30 suits.

At $25 are suits of broadcloth and gabardine with the new flare skirt---fur trimmings on many. These are $35 and $40 models.

The coats are all short, but variously.

More than a dozen models of these in navy, shades of brown, green and black---all sizes.

It looks as if this should be the most satisfactory day for selecting a suit that the season has brought.

If You Have a Coat to Buy==

We've very good news for you.

Perhaps it was the tardy arrival of the cold weather that induced the makers to make such prices---but bother with reasons: Here are the coats plainly, positively priced at less than worth. And such coats!

$9.75 to $25 Broadcloths, zibelines nicely simulating fur, great rich plaids and mixture weaves---all fashioned with belts of self material, of fur, of velvet---they would ordinarily be $15 to $35.

$18.50 to $35

The corduroy coats and velvet coats that are winning their way right now into popular favor. The corduroys fashioned with wide belts into country club styles---three-quarter length. Worth a third more.

HOMES ARE SOUGHT FOR GEORGIA CORN CLUB BOYS

Atlanta Women Asked to Entertain Visitors to City During Show

Calling upon the 400 women who last year entertained the corn club boys of Georgia to again extend their hospitality to these sturdy farmers—the Atlanta Women's Club, secretary of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, has written each a letter, telling of the wonderful amount of good the annual corn show results in to the state.

Last year about 900 of these corn club boys were taken into the homes of Atlanta women. Their good manners and unfeigned enthusiasm proved thoroughly delightful to their hosts. Many more are expected to be opened to them when they meet here December 2-4.

Secretary Cooper's letter follows: "Dear Ladies: The corn crop of Georgia has increased in value $20,000,000 in four years."

"In this wonderful progress the Georgia corn show has been an important factor, and you have had a part in it. By entertaining corn club boys, you have done much to inspire them to still greater efforts and you have made them feel that they are doing a real public service by increasing the food crop of the state."

"We think the corn show has been the best and greatest work of the Atlanta chamber of commerce and the most part of the corn show is the hospitality of Atlanta homes to these worthy country lads."

"It has a value far beyond the enjoyment it gives to the increase of wealth through it hundreds of boys are getting experience and inspiration. Time and country are coming to know each other as never before and there is a spirit of co-operation and good will."

"What better foundation can there be for the prosperity of our city and state?"

"Feeling sure that we may count on your co-operation this year, when the need of diversified farming is greater than ever, we ask that you get out, see and return the enclosed card. Please send it by return mail."

"The boys will be here two days, December 2 to 4."

"Yours very truly,
"W. G. COOPER, Secretary."

INNIS AND WIFE FREED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Court Instructs Jury to Return Verdict of Not Guilty

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 16.—Instructed verdicts of not guilty were returned by the jury today in the cases of Victor Innis and his wife, of Danvers, Ore., charged with murder and conspiracy to murder in connection with the disappearance of Mrs. Elois Nelson at Danvers, Ore., and they were released from custody.

The trial of the prisoners was brief. Innis and wife appeared in court at 10:45 o'clock. The conspiracy to murder charges were formally dismissed upon recommendation of District Attorney Lindem. The district attorney then moved the indictments charging murder be dismissed, saying if the cases were terminated, the state hereafter, in the event the corpus delicti was proved could try them. Judge Anderson overruled this saying the prisoners were entitled to a fair trial.

The prisoners were then arraigned, the regular jury sworn and the charges read to which the prisoners entered a plea of not guilty. This was accepted by the district attorney who announced no testimony would be offered by the prosecution.

The judge then instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty.

New Style Contracts Com-

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The reopening of the cotton exchange after three and a half months liquidation and adjustment following the summer months. The market for the new contracts of members on the floor, ODS and new style contracts were dealt in and failed miserably. The market for the new style contracts pressed very smoothly and prices held fairly steady. The market for the old style December contracts opened below 7.50, which was the price of the new style contracts. The corporation would go into the hands of the syndicate, and later sold off to the syndicate. The market for the new style contracts was ready with March selling around 7.85 and May at 8.60. The market for the old style contracts was ready with December and January contracts, but because of the liquidation of the corporation, the market for the old style contracts, with evidences of some investment in the market, was somewhat depressed. The market for the new style contracts was under pressure.

Trading was quiet during the middle of the month. The market for the new style contracts was under the early high level under watered selling. The market for the old style contracts was under early buyers. Liverpool was a moderate buyer of December contracts at 8.60. The market for the old style contracts was under watered selling here in liquidation of old commitments, and there may have been some liquidation of old commitments.

The liquidation of old business and the trading in the new form of contract prescribed by federal laws made two sets of quotations necessary, and the new style contract commanded higher prices than the old, the difference be-

After the call the trend of prices was slowly downward. By noon January and March were fifteen points under the levels, ruling around the opening.
